BICSc Train the Trainer qualification

The BICSc Train the Trainer qualification is designed for those looking for personal and professional development and supports those organisations that have identified individuals in the team who will be delivering BICSc qualifications on an in-house basis.

At the end of the course participants will:

- Understand and be able to promote effective cleaning operative training
- Competently perform supervisory and training tasks within set guidelines and parameters
- Perform their training role with confidence.
- Be able to identify training needs, organise training programmes, deliver knowledge and skills through effective training delivery techniques.

Each successful participant will attain the appropriate certification awarded within the BICSc Training the Trainers scheme.

Duration: Programme duration: Two days, delivered several weeks apart to allow candidates to prepare and practise their skills. The first day comprises a series of theory and practical training sessions, while the second day is for assessment of each participant delivering their own training session.
